

Painting and Photography in Montei

Category: Recreational

description:

The Association Amici dell'Arte di Serravalle Scrivia will organise an outdoor photography workshop and a painting workshop, observing the laws in force, with several experts and Prof. Maria Luisa Casaccia Gibelli and Bruno Farinelli in Montei for Saturday 20 June. Montei is a charming village in the hills, between Serravalle and Monterotondo, blanketed with blooming vineyards and known for the "Blue church", in the photos, which celebrated 150 years in 2017 in the presence of Bishop Vittorio Viola. For those who would like to take part, equipped with all the necessary accessories, the meeting point is Montei on Saturday 20 June at 2.30 pm. The initiative is open to students and adults and the participation is free. The association will make several field easels available for the painting activity.

info:

Given the particular situation and despite having ample space available, for organisational reasons it is also required to wear a mask and to communicate your participation by the evening of Friday 19th.
