We avail of a large reception room and two smaller rooms for lunches and dinners.

There is one small tasting room next to the room which displays all the products of the farmhouse; one room for lunches, Conferences and receptions; two more intimate rooms, always for lunch.

Cascina Adorno is a completely renovated property, ideal for lunches and breakfasts immersed in a natural setting and spending peaceful stays in total relaxation.

Our cuisine is typically Piedmontese and the ingredients used are always genuine and fresh, as they are almost exclusively produced on our farm.

In the summer, our customers can relax in the pool. The property is also equipped with a football field and a small external park which is ideal for families with children and other fun pastimes, such as table tennis and table football.
