

March Woman 2021 - "Women's Rights are Human Rights"

Category: Cultural

various locations:

description:

A network of opportunities Paths, events and proposals online promoted with the Equal Opportunities Council of the Municipality of Alessandria Science, Art, Employment, Health, Rights and above all Respect. These are the themes of March Woman 2021 which will be held online for as long as the pandemic continues. The number of initiatives in which the programme is articulated is particularly rich in this edition and will continue after March. The calendar of events highlights the commitment, creativity and organisational dedication of the Municipal Department for Equal Opportunities and of the Municipal Council for Equal Opportunities together with the associations in the Council and other representatives of civil society.
